1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 (the “Act”) was enacted on 3 February 2000. The Act gives effect to the constitutional right of access to information held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. This manual informs requestors of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act.

This manual is available for inspection, free of charge, at the physical address of Medi Call Holdings (Pty) Ltd (“Medi Call” or “The Company”).

2. PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

- 2.1. The manual is not only designed to comply with the provision of the Act, but also any request for information a requester may have under the Act and that is required for the exercise of protection of any right. Such a request may however be subject to justifiable limitations.
- 2.2. The manual is also intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability and to treat our customers fairly.

9. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE COMPANY

The requester must complete Form C and submit this form together with a request fee, to the head of Medi Call. The form must be submitted to the head of Medi Call at his address or electronic mail address as stated earlier in this manual.

Form of request:

- The requester must use the prescribed form, as attached in terms of Article 8 of this manual, to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the designated head. This request must be made to the address, fax number or electronic mail address of the body concerned [s 53(1)].
- The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the designated head to identify the record and the requester.
- The requester should indicate which form of access is required.
- The requester should indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed [s 53(2)(a) and (b) and (c)].
- The requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right [s 53(2)(d)].

- If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the designated head of the private body [s 53(2)(f)].
- A requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that requester is not required to pay the request fee.
- Every other requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee.
- The designated head of the private body must notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request [s 54(1)].
- The fee that the requester must pay to a private body is currently R50,00. The requester may lodge an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fees 54(3)(b)].
- After the designated head of the private body has made a decision on the request, the requester must be notified in the required form.
- If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the search, reproduction, preparation and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure [s 54(6)].
